About Ishan Patel

Ishan Patel is an entrepreneur with a decade of experience building online companies in the product, service, and health spaces. Most notably, Patel is the Co-Founder and CEO of Audien Hearing. Audien is a bootstrapped startup that started in a garage and has since grown to be the highest volume selling over-the-counter (OTC) hearing brand in the world. Patel created the lowest cost OTC hearing aid and made Audien the first hearing company in history to launch nationwide with Walmart.

Patel has been nominated for Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur of the Year award and is regarded as an industry leading expert in the OTC hearing space.

Ishan is a cat dad, foodie, and snowboarder. He also enjoys public speaking and gives several keynote speeches a year. He resides in Fountain Hills, Arizona with his wife.
